

Supporting the OC Autism Community Through Connection and Respect

A community of connection, understanding, and practical support for autistic individuals and their families.

Why It Matters

Our mission is to create connections, empowering everyone in the Autism community with the resources needed to live fully.

Our Community

Who We Support

- Autistic children, teens, and adults
- Parents, partners, and caregivers
- Families at all stages of life
- Individuals seeking community, understanding, and connection

"The impact ASOC has had on our lives has been significant."

Make Connections

Whether you're looking for support, connection, or a community that understands, ASOC is here.

Impactful Programs

- Toastmasters Gavel Club - enhancing communication, self-esteem, and community.
- Support Meetings - facilitated by experts with practical advice.
- Social Activities - with outings led by a trained social coordinator and game play with peers.
- Make a Plan - website-driven planning with videos and organizations designed to help you reach your goals.

Who We Are

A Place Where People Belong

Autism Society Orange County (formerly Orange County Asperger's Support Group) provides a welcoming, nonjudgmental community where people feel understood and accepted.

"Knowing ASOC exists has made a huge difference for our family."

Practical Support You Can Trust

Members rely on ASOC for real-world guidance, resources, and support when they don't know where to turn.

"Providing helpful information to support our family when we didn't know where to turn."

Connections That Reduce Isolation

ASOC helps individuals and families feel less alone by creating opportunities for meaningful connection.

"ASOC has helped me feel less alone and more connected to people who understand autism."

Respect, Dignity, and Understanding

Support at ASOC is person-centered, strength-based, and grounded in respect.

"ASOC treats individuals with respect and understanding."
